Forecast for Sunday 30 Oct 2022

Weather: A windy night but mainly dry with a few clear spells, cloud thickening around dawn. Some drier and brighter weather but showers developing and moving across the area, some showers may be heavy with some thunder and showers may band together at times to give a longer spell of rain. Showers mostly dying out in the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 70% some lower cloud associated with passing showers.

Low cloud and visibility: Good visibility in general but any heavier showers will cause a temporary dip, a thunderstorm may cause visibility to be very poor for a time. Scattered cloud layers above 600m are likely at times especially around southern fells and showery conditions.
